

VIRTUAL PROGRAM WORKSHOPS: These workshops are designed for educators and front-line workers who are leading programming virtually for children aged 4 to 15 using platforms like Google Classrooms, Zoom and Teams.	IN-PERSON PROGRAM WORKSHOPS: These workshops are designed for educators and front-line workers who are leading in-person programming for children aged 4 to 15 using safety precautions to prevent the spread of COVID.
VIRTUAL BEST PRACTICES (1 hour long) This active and fun session works through the top 8 tips for making virtual programming work for children and youth aged 4 to 14. It includes lots of practical activities and examples that can help inspire you to make your virtual programs and classrooms engaging, fun and memorable. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “Virtual Programming: Best Practices Handbook” – an 18-page resource that reviews the top 8 strategies for creating engaging virtual programs. 	CREATING INCLUSIVE AND COVID-SAFE IN-PERSON PROGRAMS (1 hour long) Learn how to create safe, inclusive, and fun in-person programming, through a series of strategies and adapted activities that will get every child, regardless of ability, active and moving this year! Program leaders will leave this workshop feeling confident, equipped and excited to test out 10 new strategies to create safe, COVID-friendly spaces for individuals living with disabilities and beyond. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “10 Strategies for Creating Inclusive and COVID-Safe In-Person Programs” resource, COVID specific visual resource kit, and access to online video bank for COVID-friendly activities.
ZOOM 101 (45 minutes long) Using Zoom to lead virtual programming and feeling unfamiliar with the platform? This session helps participants enhance their confidence in all of Zoom’s most essential features for leading virtual programming. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “Zoom 101” - a 20-page resource that outlines key Zoom features and steps for setting up virtual programming on Zoom in safe and effective ways. 	DESIGNING GIRL-CENTRED SPACES (45 minutes long) Using researched best practices, this engaging session focuses on key considerations that support safer, more welcoming and increasingly fun spaces for girls to participate and engage with programming. Walk away with easy tips and tricks you can implement in active programs and/or a classroom setting. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “Designing Girl-Centered Spaces” – a multi-page resource that reviews key considerations for planning/implementing girl-centered spaces and provides a host of activities and planning tools.
LET’S GET PHYSICAL (45 minutes long) Want to get kids moving? Learn through playing close to 30 physical activities that you can use to keep kids engaging, laughing and physically active in your virtual programs. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “Virtual Programming: 135 Activities That Work On A Virtual Platform”- a 44-page resource filled with over 135 activities designed to keep youth laughing, moving and engaging online. 	MAKING IN-PERSON PHYS-ED AND DPA COVID-SAFE AND FUN (45 minutes long) Looking for quick and easy activities to play with children while maintaining safe physical distancing? This active and informative session will lead you through a variety of techniques and activities to make your in-person physical programming safe and fun! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “6 Foot Activity Manual: 60 Activities That Work While Distancing” – a 27-page resource filled with 60 activities designed to help you create fun, play-based experiences while maintaining six-foot distancing rules with youth in your program.
LEVELLING UP YOUR PROGRAM (45 minutes long) Do you have experience facilitating virtual programs but are looking to take it up a notch? Come learn some wacky and unique activities you can incorporate into your sessions to keep youth engaged and make your programming memorable, interactive and fun! <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “75 Wacky and Unique Virtual Activities”- a multi-page resource filled with 75+ activities designed to take your virtual program to the next level and keep kids interacting and engaged. 	CHILD PROTECTION (1 hour long) Understanding the risks associated with youth programming is extremely important. This session will cover how to keep youth safe in online and in-person environments and will equip caring adults with the tools and resources they need if they need to intervene to ensure a child’s safety. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “Child Protection Policies and Procedures”
CREATING INCLUSIVE VIRTUAL CLASSROOMS AND PROGRAMS (45 minutes long) Trying to find ways to engage and include some of your participants with disabilities online? Learn how to create fun, safe, and inclusive virtual environments for youth of all abilities, by exploring 12 innovative strategies that include adapted activities, using inclusive language effectively online and a variety of communication and behaviour management tools designed for student success. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “12 Strategies for Creating Inclusive Virtual Classrooms and Programs” resource, COVID specific visual resource kit, and a Challenger Baseball At-Home Session 	CREATING TRAUMA-INFORMED CLASSROOMS & PROGRAMS (45 minutes long) Whether you are teaching a classroom full of students or facilitating a program online, join us to enhance your knowledge and experience creating safe spaces for children and youth. Using a Trauma-informed and play-based approach, you will leave this session feeling equipped with the tools needed to foster safe and meaningful connections, enhance resiliency and provide opportunities to identify and connect with children and youth who are in need of your support.  NOTE: This workshop is suitable for both virtual and in-person settings. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Resources: All participants who attend will receive a copy of “Trauma Informed Virtual Programs”- a 44-page resource filled with tips, guidelines and activities for setting up trauma-informed program spaces for children and youth.